

FIRE SAFETY

Tues., April 3rd, at 7 PM

Stinson Beach Community Center

Stinson Beach Fire Chief Kenny Stevens and the Stinson Beach Disaster Council encourage you to attend an important Public Meeting on FIRE SAFETY and WILDFIRE PREPAREDNESS to be held on TUESDAY, APRIL 3rd, at 7 PM at the STINSON BEACH COMMUNITY CENTER (32 Belvedere Ave./off Hwy. 1) aimed at reducing wildfire hazards and increasing fire safety awareness in Stinson Beach and West Marin.

Speakers will include Battalion Chief Chris Martinelli who was one of the first officers from the Marin County Fire Dept. to arrive on the scene of the recent Sonoma County fires speaking on what firefighters have learned from that experience, Battalion Chief Christie Neill, a wildland fire specialist with the Marin County Fire Dept., speaking on the importance of maintaining defensible space to improve your home's chance of surviving a fire, and Lieutenant Jim Hickey, West Marin's Office Watch Commander with the Marin County Sheriff's Office, speaking on how you can help to keep our roads clear and prepared in case of necessary evacuation.
