1. NPS staff expands communications with appropriate departments and staff at County, other agencies (including Stinson Beach Flood Advisory Board) on upcoming studies, projects to inform each other, collaborate. On-site meetings with nearby residents continue.
2. NPS staff continue work on scoping reports and planning for improvements and structural repairs to the lifeguard tower and cafe. All in preliminary planning stages.
3. Xerces Society has just released an early assessment of the low numbers of monarchs in the west, with none or very few at most overwintering sites.
