

WORKS BY ELI BOTVINICK

August and September

I was, in fact, a “you did that?” artist, since whenever people looked at my work, they asked, “you did that?”.

THE BOLINAS-FAIRFAX ROAD: 139 YEARS OF HISTORY

Historian & Author Brian Crawford shares the fascinating history of the Bolinas-Fairfax Road, built in 1878 to provide Marin with a crucial transportation link across the county. Intimately tied to the history of Marin County and its water wars, the road was rerouted many times as dams and reservoirs were built. It was also the scene of runaway stagecoaches, landslides, fires, earthquakes, encounters with wildlife and one bizarre holdup. Brian's illustrated talk features photographs and maps, including materials from the California Room's Unrecorded Marin County Map Collection. Followed by a book-signing.
